Case No. 17-CV-3058

DECLARATION OF BROCK FREDIN

BROCK FREDIN,

Defendants.

Case No. 18-CV-466

DECLARATION OF BROCK FREDIN

BROCK FREDIN,

Plaintiff,

--against--

JAMIE KREIL,

Defendant.

Case No. 20-CV-1929

DECLARATION OF BROCK FREDIN

STATE OF WISCONSIN }
 ss:
COUNTY OF SAINT CROIX }

BROCK FREDIN, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the Plaintiff in the above-captioned proceedings. I submit this declaration in support of my leave to file a motion for reconsideration in Fredin v. Kreil in the district court.

AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS

2. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of Lindsey Middlecamp, Catherine Schaefer, Grace Miller, and Jamie Kreil’s @CardsAgstHrsmt tweets directed at me present to this day.

3. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of Lindsey Middlecamp, Catherine Schaefer, Grace Miller, and Jamie Kreil’s tweets directed at me on the account @webster.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a true and correct copy of K. Jon Breyer’s October 6, 2020 emails requesting that content be removed as an act of good faith for a few hours during settlement negotiations.

5. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of November 18, 2020 comments directed at me online originating from Defendants.

MISREPRESENTED SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS

6. As the attached emails show, on October 8, 2020 K. Jon Breyer reached out to me that he independently found the videos and websites and that he would not negotiate or engage in settlement negotiations while they still appear. In effect, K. Jon Breyer demanded the content be taken down for two (2) hours as an act of good faith during the settlement negotiations. I honored this to the extent settlement negotiations were being decided. K. Jon Breyer and Ann M. Lockner are being totally dishonest and deceptive when they claim I used any content online to try to exploit a favorable settlement. At no time was I ever trying to extort a favorable settlement with the videos or websites. K. Jon Breyer and Anne Lockner have presented no evidence to corroborate their false allegation that has now unfortunately been accepted by this Court. This is attached as Exhibit B.

7. It is unfortunate that this Court accepted K. Jon Breyer and Ann Lockner's misrepresentations during settlement negotiations. It is even more unfortunate that the Court repeated these misrepresentations multiple times in the November 23, 2020 Order and used these representations as justification for issuing an unconstitutional prior restraint on my free speech.

8. Furthermore, Defendant Lindsey Middlecamp sent multiple direct messages to me in October and November 2020 and created an account "Brock Fredin Harassment Response Center". This is attached as Exhibit D.

Subject: Ethics Concern

To: [REDACTED]

You wrote an article about 'shirtless shamming' in Minneapolis. That person/account recently did 'victim shamming' someone who was the target of revenge porn.

There is a criminal investigation underway in St. Paul. We know the stalker is named [REDACTED]

We'd like to know if you know Lindsay's name from the Cards Against Harassment account. We can share any information about the criminal investigation into their stalking and criminal defamation.

They released a victim's work information publicly and created online sex profiles/ads soliciting sex without consent that sent many emails to the victim. This is against the law.

If you stand for gender equality, justice, etc... You'll help to get Lindsay's name. Give it to [REDACTED] Police dept or [REDACTED] Police Dept. Very valuable to prevent revenge porn.

We need it immediately.

We will peacefully protest the Huffington Post for endorsing revenge porn if you don't cooperate.

Re: Ethics Concern

Hi Fredin,

As you know, I maintain a Twitter account that generally addresses subjects of ethics and civil liberties, harassment, open culture, etc. Although I am not a journalist or a public figure, I endeavor to use my personal social media platform to raise awareness or matters related to personal, scientific, equality, and social justice.

Today I was forwarded an email you sent to the Huffington Post which, although somewhat difficult to follow, appears to accuse me of participating in criminal activities. I believe you are well aware that these allegations are false. After reading the Minnesota Court of Appeals decision regarding a restraining order against you, I posted a tweet on January 24 stating your name with my followers. I stated that I have not generated, posted, published, or distributed any content related to you other than a subsequent tweet posted today, publishing a reminder of your email to the Huffington Post. I thank the court's decision and lack of support for your allegations of criminal conduct. I can only conclude that you sent the email to the Huffington Post for the purpose of harassment or harm to my reputation.

I expect that you will immediately remove and delete any direct content to myself or repost content made to third parties with the purpose of either harassing or knowingly false allegations against me or to bring my personal information which to someone, aware designed to send the message to me that you are looking for my personal information, which I believe any reasonable person would also be carrying forward. I am sorry that you have been told and my wife contact related to you has been a team consisting only factual information.

In light of the documented history of harassing tactics you have engaged in against other civil liberties I will take any reasonable steps to protect

Re: Ethics Concern

Mr. Fredin,

As you know, I maintain a twitter account that primarily addresses subjects of online and real life misogyny, harassment, rape culture, etc. Although I am not a journalist or a public figure, I endeavor to use my personal social media platform to raise awareness on matters related to gendered violence, equality, and social justice.

Today I was forwarded an email you sent to the Huffington Post which, although somewhat difficult to follow, appears to accuse me of participating in criminal activities. I believe you are well aware that these allegations are false. After reading the Minnesota Court of Appeals decision upholding a restraining order against you, I posted a tweet on January 24 sharing your name with my followers. Beyond that, I have not generated, posted, published, or distributed any content related to you (other than a subsequent tweet posted today publishing a screenshot of your email to the Huffington Post.) Given the complete falseness and lack of support for your allegations of criminal conduct I can only conclude that you sent the email to the Huffington Post for the purpose of harassment or harm to my reputation.

I expect that you will immediately cease and desist any direct contact to myself or indirect contact made to third parties with the purpose of either a) making knowingly false allegations against me or b) finding my personal information (which by extension, seems designed to send the message to me that you are looking for my personal information, which I believe any reasonable person would view as carrying threatening connotations since we have never met and my sole contact related to you has been a tweet containing only factual information.)

In light of the documented history of harassing tactics you have engaged in against other local women I will take any necessary legal steps to protect

She recently participated in a Twitter campaign shamming a victim of revenge porn. This campaign also released the victim's work information publicly to 20k viewers of the post.

We are asking you to immediately end any relationship with her.

If you do not endorse stalking or revenge porn, we ask that you end any future relationship, and remove any of her content/association from your site.

I'd also like to connect with a reporter about an ongoing campaign that's related to a digital 'reverse brock turner' type of tactic. We have a criminal investigation with the St. Paul Police Dept.

I've been debating whether or not to post this, but I feel I must. This man raped me 7 years ago. The St. Louis Park police didn't take me seriously then, but I hope they will see now that he is a predator. As I type these words, my hands are shaking, my breath is short, and I have a deep, pulsing ball in the pit of my stomach. This is the physical manifestation of the PTSD I have as a result of him violating my body and robbing me of my dignity. I resent the fact that the police let my case drop. It would have spared his future victims from the heartache and trauma they are most certainly enduring now.

A direct statement shared with me by one of Brock Fredin's victims on some of the details absent from the City Pages article:

As the article describes, I requested a harassment restraining order after multiple instances of unwanted contact. I threatened to call the police twice before even seeking the order, so the unwanted contact was well over the line.

One day, not long after I'd submitted the request, a policeman came to my door to deliver a document – it was a copy of a 24-page order for protection request (which is for victims of domestic abuse) Brock had made against me. Reading through it was one of the worst moments of my life.

Despite the fact that I never harassed, harmed, or threatened to harm Brock, in the request, Brock had checked the boxes saying "I am reasonably in fear of physical harm from the respondent" and that "The respondent engaged in acts of harassment or stalking." He described me as having extreme alcoholic and violent tendencies, and threatening to kill several people. In the request, he took the liberty of diagnosing me with multiple mental health issues, including PTSD, and requesting that the court prohibit me from owning a firearm (I own a handgun – one of the few things that helped me feel safe throughout this ordeal).

He also asked the court that I be ordered to attend a domestic abuse program, to get an alcohol/chemical dependency evaluation, and be forced into mental health treatment. Finally, he requested that the court order me to pay him exactly $2201 for his trouble. His request was denied, but Brock had the opportunity to make his case at our court hearing.

Brock must not have been that afraid of me, because in the hearing, he told the judge that he would withdraw this order for protection request if I withdrew my harassment restraining order request. Clearly this was an effort to silence me. Though I didn't back down from seeking the restraining order (which was granted), I stayed silent as he smeared my reputation on the internet and wrote open letters to me from social media accounts for months (sometimes saying he loves me, sometimes calling me a bully, or worse). I'm so glad this is in the open now. I don't know if there will ever be justice for what happened to me and to Catherine and so many others. Throughout this totally horrific episode, I keep getting told that much of his behavior is either legal or almost impossible to prove in court. But at least this way other women will be warned – and I hope that it will encourage them to seek justice, or at least protection, whatever the obstacles.

I feel like it's not a great look, in your handwritten defamation complaint mailed from jail, to call the local paper the "Star and Sickle," to say a reporter has a "yellow journalism career," or to complain about [checks notes] ... reporters seeking comment from police?

Defendant Mullen is currently employed as a news editor for the city pages.

Extremely aware and receiving alerts on every filing in every case. Unrelated, I used to work with Brock at a web development shop in town.

Brock Fredin, a pretty gross dude convicted for stalking, is suing @CityPages and @mikemullen_ for defamation over this story. His civil complaint was hand-written and mailed from a jail.

Accused Minneapolis-St. Paul stalker Brock Fredin...
He'd found two victims. Until they found each other.

RE: Fredin v. Miller, Case No. 18-CV-466

To: brock fredin

I was preparing terms and then I came across these:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pWPAHCN3iZQ>

and

<http://www.kjonbreyer.com/>

I will not have any settlement discussions with you until these (or any others) are taken down.

FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

Let's see if you're telling the truth and if you're negotiating in good faith. The website and video (which only contains truthful information) has been removed. I expect reasonable terms by end of the working day (5PM CST).

To: brock fredin

Thank you. I appreciate it.

I can't respond by 5:00 today, but can give you a proposal tomorrow by 5:00 pm. I have a deposition that will last most of the day or I'd get it to you sooner.

This post was created by Brock Fredin, a serial rapist, stalker, and harasser of women in the Minneapolis/St.

Pauline area. Brock Fredin frequently commits sexual felonies, including sexual assault, by standing them in the shower. He has been charged by the Hennepin County Grand Jury for some of these crimes (sexual and harassment restraining order violation) and is currently awaiting trial.

Criminal defamation is a serious offense in the state of Minnesota, punishable by up to one year in prison.

Please don't let this creep's videos influence your voting decisions.

He's a serial stalker and harasser who makes smear sites and videos about every judge and lawyer who tries to help his victims. Judge Diamond was one of them - he approved the victims' restraining order petitions.

Please don't let this creep's videos influence your voting decisions. He's a serial stalker and harasser who makes smear sites and videos about every judge and lawyer who rules in favor of his victims. Judge Vuelo sent him to jail for stalking a woman, which is why this guy is spewing vitriol all over the internet.
